

Manufacturer Representative Membership

Qualifications

A company with a substantial part of their business representing boiler industry manufacturers, along with a direct business relationship with at least one ABMA manufacturer member. Verification will take place where necessary.

Companies with business in rentals and other ancillary services may qualify as an Associate Member.

Benefits

- Direct engagement with manufacturers to enhance relationships.
- Attendance at select ABMA events.
- Obtain insights and trends from the boiler industry and its manufacturers.
- Ability to share experiences and help address challenges as an industry.

Scope

- Participation and member pricing in Summer Meeting, BOILER 2024 – ABMA’s Boiler Expo, Manufacturers Conference, and other events.
- Participation in Representative Council
  - Opportunity for peer connections, sharing best practices and challenges and engage with ABMA leadership.
  - Meetings of Council at select ABMA events and virtually when requested.
- Eligible to receive all ABMA communications and ITR Economics reports.
- Opportunity to sponsor events and advertise in all ABMA publications.
- Buyers Guide listing in Representative section.

Yearly Membership Fee

Dues Rate - $3,750